SOCIAL HALL RENTAL INSURANCE

The Borough of Midland Park and its insurers require the following insurance for hall rental.

Defined Quasi Municipal Entities:

All defined (approved) Quasi Municipal Entities are covered by the Borough of Midland Park. These Entities do not need any additional certificates of insurance coverage. They are protected to the same limits as the Borough of Midland Park.

Individuals:

Private insurance companies offer one day insurance coverage. Such coverage will undoubtedly be priced at the market rate.

The Social Hall will not be rented without this coverage.

Groups, Organizations or For Profit entities:

Groups, Organizations, Non-Profit other than Quasi or For Profit Entities must secure a certificate of insurance naming the Borough of Midland Park as additional named insured for an amount of at least $500,000.

An applicant in this category would have some sort of organizational liability insurance. An organization without liability insurance may not rent any Borough property.

Hold harmless Agreement.

In addition to the above certificate of insurance, Groups and/or “For Profit” Entities must complete and sign a Hold Harmless Agreement (see attached form). The Borough of Midland Park is not nor will it endorse, condone or otherwise acknowledge a groups’ activity as being permissible or legal.
